NOON

AARON GRIGGS & VELVET BULLDOZER

Rarely these days does a guitar player come along who can capture the raw energy, excitement and power of blues music and infuse it with modern rock — to create the perfect blend suitable for aficionados of both genres.

1 PM

ROGER MARIN BAND

Following years of touring the world non-stop with Canadian luminaries Fred Eaglesmith & Willie P. Bennett, and working with the likes of Willie Nelson, Adam Carroll, Junior Brown, Del McCoury, Hayes Carll and Delbert McClinton, Roger Marin now delivers his own distinctive voice and an honest, razor-sharp sound that cuts through the manufactured pretence of commercial music.

2:30 PM

FATHEAD

With two Juno Awards and numerous music industry trophies to their credit, FATHEAD has played the top blues rooms, concert halls and music festivals from coast to coast. Their music is steeped heavily in the blues — married with elements of r&b, funk and soul — and possesses a unique ensemble sound that is immediately recognizable as their own.

5:15 PM

PHIL KANE COMBO DELUXE

Between them, they have worked with everyone from Buddy Guy, the Goo Goo Dolls and The 5th Dimension to Charo, The Quakes, Lenny Breau, Bo Diddley — and all points in between! With all this experience, they still remain enthusiastic about having fun and playing music.

GLORY DAYS

A unique six-piece ensemble, Glory Days is a tribute to an American musical icon — perhaps one of the greatest rock singers/songwriters of our time — Bruce Springsteen. This band's line-up is exclusively composed of experienced concert musicians able to recreate the classic songs and performances that were ... and still are ... Springsteen's trademark.
